

VOTE APPRECIATION FOR ACTION OF U. S.

Both Houses of British Parliament Adopt
Resolutions

CROWD HOUSE GALLERIES

Speakers Refer to American's Purely Disinterested Intervention

VISCOUNT BRYCE SPEAKS

LONDON, April 18.—Today's sitting of the British parliament will be a historical landmark. Both the legislative houses adopted—the house of lords unanimously and the house of commons with one dissenting vote—resolutions expressing the profound appreciation of the British nation for the action of the United States government and people in entering the world war in defense of the high cause of freedom and the rights of humanity.

House Galleries Crowded

The unusual importance of the occasion was shown in the crowded state of the galleries in the house of commons. Among those in the galleries were Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador and many other Americans as well as the representatives of the entire allied states. The resolution in the house was moved by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer. Former Premier Asquith seconded it in an eloquent speech. The resolution in the house of lords was introduced by Lord Curzon of Kedleston, lord president of the council.

In all the speeches in both houses particular reference was made to America's purely disinterested intervention. "The most disinterested in history," as Mr. Asquith put it, the complete absence of any motive of self interest, calculation or ambition.

Mr. Asquith pointed out that neither the liberty nor independence of the United States was imperiled. "It was the constraining force of conscience and humanity," he added.

Dillon Supports Resolution

John Dillon, one of the Nationalist leaders, in a fervent speech supporting the resolution predicted that Irishmen in proportion to their population would outnumber all other races among the soldiers of the republic. To America, Mr. Dillon said, "will fall the blessed task of basing peace upon liberty."

George Wardle, Laborite, also spoke in favor of the resolution in behalf of his party and thus all parties in the house were represented. In the house of lords, Earl Curzon said the United States in the war stamped the struggle as a great uprising of the conscience of mankind to put an end to the rule of Satan on earth. The president's speech to congress, Earl Curzon added, was a trumpet call, the sound of which would ring thru the ages.

Viscount Bryce Speaks

Viscount Bryce, former ambassador to the United States, alluded to the same lofty ideals animating both the United States and England. The Marquis of Crew admitting that the material resources of the United States were unspeakably welcome to the entente, said that even more welcome was the moral force of which Earl Curzon had spoken. The archbishop of Canterbury said that when the elementary principles of right and wrong were set at naught there could be no permanent neutrality among honest men.

NEW ORDER AFFECTS ENGLISH TEA SHOPS

LONDON, April 18.—The food controller, Lord Devonport, has issued an order, effective Tuesday next, prohibiting thereafter the sale of light pastries, muffins, compotes or tea cakes. Cakes, buns, scones and biscuits can only be sold if they conform to the drastic restrictions respecting the amount of wheat flour and sugar used. Tea shops which are so popular in England will suffer heavily by the new order.

The war office has ordered a return made by May 1 of all horses, mules, cattle, sheep, pigs and agricultural implements in Great Britain.

REQUESTS ACTION ON BILL BE DELAYED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 18.—Attorney General Edward J. Brandegee today requested Chairman William Brinkman of the house public utilities committee to delay action on the Tyers bill to repeal the Illinois two cent fare law until the United States supreme court had acted on a test case now before it.

The Tyers bill would authorize the public utilities commission to increase the passenger fare to 2.4 cents per mile in conformity with interstate commerce commission ruling.

WEAR FLAGS ON CHEEKS.

Chicago, April 18.—Girls at the Art Institute have adopted a fad in beauty spots that is timely. Instead of wearing black spots on their faces they have made tiny flags and are wearing them on their cheeks.

PLACE NO CREDENCE IN REPORT OF FIRING

Officials at Boston Navy Yard
Make Announcement

Make Positive Statement That There
Had Been No Naval Engagement and That Warships Had Not Exchanged Salutes With Foreign Vessels

Boston, April 18.—It was officially announced at the navy yard late today that no credence was placed in reports from three coast guard stations on Cape Cod that heavy gun firing had been heard off the coast. The positive statement was made that there had been no naval engagements and that warships had not exchanged salutes with foreign vessels.

Receive Reports from Cape Cod

The previous announcement that heavy gun firing had been heard during the morning was also issued officially at the navy yard. It was based on reports from Cape Cod received by Lieutenant E. G. Blakesley in charge of the naval radio district.

Newspaper correspondents at points on the cape reported they had not heard any gun firing.

The statement discrediting the first official announcement was issued after the navy yard radio station had been in communication with the patrol fleet off the coast. No information of any firing was obtained from ships at sea the authorities said, adding that coast guard stations had sent in no additional reports.

Naval officers were unable to explain the probable origin of the morning reports, which, according to the official announcement came independently from three coast guard stations.

Report Further Firing

Tonight there were reports current on the tip of Cape Cod of further firing. The sounds were heard between 10 and 10:30 o'clock and apparently came from the northwest, the stories said.

Coast guard stations in the vicinity of Provincetown reported that they had heard nothing.

The feather was clear, the coast guardmen said. Shipping was passing outside the cape as usual with the customary lights showing and with no evidences of excitement.

Officials at the Boston navy yard declined to comment on the new rumors of fighting.

ADMIRAL FORWARDS REPORT TO WASHINGTON

LONDON, April 18.—The report of Rear-Admiral William S. Sims, United States Navy, head of the American naval mission now in England, dealing with all phases of the submarine problem, has forwarded to Washington where it is being considered by President Wilson and the naval board, who will be guided by it in determining how the American fleet can best co-operate with the British navy in combating the underwater craft. The report is the result of several days' conference between Rear-Admiral Sims and heads of the British admiralty.

Rear-Admiral Sims' report makes no recommendations whatever to the American government, but simply outlines the information obtained from the British admiralty and places the facts before the Washington authorities for their decision.

D. A. R. BALLOT FOR GENERAL OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Daughters of the American Revolution in their 27th annual convention here spent today balloting for general officers. Four tickets were in the field headed respectively by Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis, wife of the senator from Illinois; Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey of Kansas; Mrs. John Horton of New York and Mrs. George C. Squires of Minnesota.

Mrs. Eliza Perry Leary, chairman of the credentials committee, announced that 1,350 delegates were entitled to vote and that 681 was a majority. The voting was by states.

Colonel Roosevelt sent a letter to Mrs. William Cunningham Story, the president-general suggesting that the daughters endorse the work of the American society caring for destitute children of France.

AMERICAN QUAKERS ARE NOT PASSIVISTS

RICHMOND, Ind., April 18.—American Quakers are pacifists but not passivists according to a statement from the central office of the Five Years Meeting of Friends in America, issued here today by Walter C. Woodward, general secretary. The friends may be expected to maintain their historic position against war, he declares, both as a matter of principle and of policy. They are none the less loyal to the government and will be found doing their bit in ways consonant with their convictions. Attention is called to heroic and self-sacrificing acts by English Friends in Belgium, France and Russia, as indicative of the practical, constructive service that may be expected of the Disciples of George Fox on this side of the Atlantic. A nation-wide organization of Friends toward this end is projected.

INCREASE PREMIUMS ON NEW POLICIES

New York, April 18.—One of the largest life insurance companies in the country announced today that beginning at 4 o'clock this afternoon premiums on new policies on the life of any man in the army or navy would be raised $70 for each $1,000 of insurance. This is in addition to an increase of $30 announced some time ago.

DRAW LINES FOR WAR ARMY FIGHT

Wilson States No Compromise Can Be Accepted With Safety to Nation

COMMITTEE AMENDS BILL

House Military Body Would Authorize Calls for Volunteer Increments of 500,000

OPPOSE DRAFT CLAUSE

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The lines were drawn today for a great fight between the administration and opponents in the house on the plan to raise the war army by selective draft.

Committee Amends Bill.

While President Wilson was at the capitol telling senators and representatives that no compromise between the volunteer and draft systems could be accepted with safety to the nation, the house military committee by a vote of 12 to 8 adopted amendments to the administration bill authorizing calls for volunteer increments of 500,000 and providing that the draft shall be applied only in the event the president decides that the force needed cannot be raised and maintained under the volunteer plan.

Chairman Dent headed the anti-draft forces and will introduce the amended bill in the house tomorrow with a view to pressing it for passage Monday. Representative Kahn of California, ranking Republican member of the committee, will lead the fight for the administration. The senate committee formally voted 10 to 7 today to report virtually without change the bill as originally drafted by the general staff and approved by the president and will present it tomorrow.

Makes Determination Plain.

The president made very plain to those with whom he talked, his determination to have the staff bill enacted. There seems no doubt that he will appeal directly to the country, if necessary and tell the people that in the opinion of the military advisers of the government as well as administration officers, national safety demands that the war army be provided under the plans prepared by the army experts after long study of lessons learned from the war in Europe.

The war department holds that every weakness of the volunteer system would be perpetuated under the house committee's scheme.

A feature of the amendments providing for the selection of officers from local units is regarded by officers as particularly obnoxious to sound military principles. They say the task of providing competent officers under this restriction would be rendered ten times more difficult and the efficiency of the army to be built greatly reduced from the very start. The president thinks that full opportunity for volunteers is offered under the staff bill since there will be room for 724,000 voluntary enlistments in the regular army and national guard for the duration of the war. In addition, the door is thrown wide open to men who are qualified to become officers.

Amendments were adopted to strike out a provision in the bill that each chief of bureau of the war department should have the rank, pay and allowances of major general during the emergency and a stipulation that all voluntary enlistments shall be in the army of the United States and those enlisted may be assigned to any part of that force not required to be raised by selective draft.

Would Have Recourse to Courts.

Other amendments provided that any person who feels himself aggrieved by his enrollment or draft should have recourse to the courts; that when drafted the organizations or units of the national guard shall so far as practicable retain the state designation of their respective organizations, that all "persons enlisted or drafted shall so far as practicable be grouped into units by states and the political divisions of the same"; that all persons who have enlisted since April 1, either in the regular army or national guard shall be discharged upon the termination of the existing emergency; and that ministers of the gospel of all denominations and persons whose "principles" or "creed" are opposed to war shall be exempt from draft not relieved of doing service of a non-combatant nature.

In the senate committee, a proposal to insert authority for the president to call 500,000 volunteers under existing law, was defeated.

While congress is struggling with the framing of the law, the war department is going steadily ahead with its plans to carry out the program mapped out in the administration bill.

FIVE HURT IN EXPLOSION.

Point Pleasant, W. Va., April 18.—Five men were perhaps fatally injured at the Linden mine of the Hutchinson Coal company at Mason, near here, today when lightning struck a powder magazine and exploded 150 kegs of blasting powder.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

The great offensive of the French army against the Germans from the bend in the line in France from Soissons eastward into the Champagne continues unabated. Numerous new points of vantage have been taken, prisoners and guns captured and violent counter attacks put down. In three days of fighting more than 17,000 unwounded prisoners have fallen into the hands of the French, together with 75 cannon.

In Wednesday's battle in the forest of Ville-Au-Bois an enveloping movement was carried out against the Germans and 1,500 of them surrounded. In addition 189 machine guns were captured there.

Between Soissons and Rheims the villages of Ostel and Braye-en-Laonnois were captured, together with territory about them, the Germans in the latter region retreating in disorder and losing to one French regiment alone 300 prisoners belonging to seven different regiments. The Germans left behind much war material.

Between Juvencourt and the Aisne the Germans threw a counter attack against the French line with about 40,000 men but according to Paris the artillery of General Nivelle's men repulsed the attack with sanguinary losses. South of St. Quentin during Wednesday the Germans also attacked the French east of Gauchy. This attack, which failed, was followed by another in which the Germans penetrated and advanced French positions. In a counter-attack the French regained their lost trenches.

London reports that the British forces have gained additional ground along the river Scarpe to the east of Pampoux and also captured the village of Villers-Gaillain, north of St. Quentin. To the north in the region of Loos, a system of German front line trenches also was taken.

Northwest of Braila on the Danube river in Rumania the Germans delivered a violent attack against the Russians but were repulsed says Petrograd. The towns of Braila and Pokshani are reported to have been burned by the Germans. Only minor engagements have taken place in Russia and Galicia.

Berlin reports the capture from the French in Macedonia of a position extending over two thirds of a mile along the Crvena Stena. There have been no important developments in the campaigns in the Austro-Italian or Turkish theaters.

Another Spanish steamer, the Tom, has been sunk without warning by a submarine and eighteen persons perished.

Official advices say that Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier, and two members of the Austrian cabinet have resigned. Other reports are that the resignation of the Greek cabinet is impending.

BLAME CAR SHORTAGE FOR HIGH COAL PRICE

Leading Operators of the East Testify Before Federal Trade Commission

Washington, April 18.—Lack of transportation facilities was blamed for the advanced price of bituminous coal by leading operators of the east testifying today before the federal trade commission which is investigating high coal prices. Several complained against the alleged practice of the railroads of diverting open cars from the coal carrying trade to the transportation of commodities, for which, they claimed, higher rates were obtained.

T. B. Davis, president of the Island Creek Coal company, made a plea to the commission to take steps to remedy the shortage upon the needs of National defense. He suggested a preferential car supply for the transportation of necessities and asked curtailment of the supply for carrying articles not needed for the nation's existence.

J. W. Dawson, a West Virginia operator; Thomas G. Maher, of Cleveland; Robert H. Gross, president of the New River company and several other operators all contended that with plenty of cars available the law of supply and demand automatically would result in a drop in the price.

BILL TO REPEAL BOXING LAW FAILS

ALBANY, N. Y., April 18.—The Davis bill designed to repeal the state laws permitting boxing, was given what is believed to be a death blow by the assembly tonight amid stormy scenes. The measure lacked six votes of the required seventy six when it came up for passage. Yesterday it failed of passage by only two votes. The vote was 70 yeas to 60 noes. Should a companion bill receive favorable action in the senate it may come before the lower house for a third vote. Under the rules the assembly measure cannot be called up again in the lower house.

OPEN RECRUITING STATION FOR FARMERS' HELPERS

Philadelphia, April 18.—A recruiting station for farmers' helpers was opened here today to enroll the names of men who wish to enlist in President Wilson's "Service Army." The recruits will be sent to the big grain section of the northwest to assist in planting the spring wheat and rye.

TO CULTIVATE PRISON FARM.

Jackson, Miss., April 18.—In response to President Wilson's appeal to increase food production, trustees of the Mississippi penitentiary announced today that a prison farm of one thousand acres will be planted in corn, peas, potatoes and pumpkins instead of cotton as had been planned.

GERMANY PLANNED TO ATTACK U. S.

Former Ambassador Gerard Makes Assertion at Boston Dinner

PREDICTS HARD WAR

General Wood States a Lot of Men Will Have to Be Sent Across the Sea

MUST BRING DEAD BACK

BOSTON, April 18.—To show the "deep hatred" which he asserted Germany held against the United States, former ambassador James Gerard tonight disclosed the facts, which he said had been kept from the American people during the past two and half years. He was the principal speaker at a national defense dinner given by the Pilgrim Publicity association.

Mr. Gerard said that Admiral Von Tirpitz in thinly veiled statements and the German Reichstag and Prussian parliament in open discussion proposed the institution of unrestricted warfare against England with the intention, "when England should have been subdued by hunger to come over to the United States and collect the price of the war from fulfilled intention to come over afterwards and attack us, and collect the price of the war from us."

Would Have Fulfilled Intention.

"I want to tell you," Mr. Gerard added, "that if we had not gone in to this war, Germany would have done so almost with the applause of the rest of the world. I can tell you also that everything consistent with honor was done to keep us out of the war. Beyond that, I am sure, no one would have us go."

The former ambassador expressed his belief that citizens of German descent would prove loyal but he added "if they do not stand with us, I think we know where to fustoon them."

Predicts Hard War.

Mr. Gerard's statement that the war would be a hard one was echoed by Major General Wood.

"No one can tell how the war is going to go so far as we are concerned," he said. "It may be a very serious thing for us. It is very serious now. We have got to send a lot of men across the sea and we must bring back a lot of men who die on the other side."

Major General Wood said that those who are opposing President Wilson's bill of universal, obligatory military service will be responsible for thousands of lives if their arguments prevail.

WILSON WORKING FOR ESPIONAGE MEASURE

WASHINGTON, April 18.—President Wilson devoted much of his attention today to influencing prompt action by congress on the espionage bill.

Adjournment was taken tonight, however, with the section in dispute still to be voted on. An amendment by Senator Lodge designed to clear up the right of comment or criticism of acts or policies of the government, was accepted but the fight will be continued tomorrow on the section itself. Under it any person collecting, publishing or eliciting information about matters of national defense which might be useful to the enemy, in violation of regulations by the president would be punishable with ten years' imprisonment or a $10,000 fine. Several Democrats criticized the section vigorously, and every Republican who spoke registered opposition.

WAR WILL AFFECT GAY NIGHT LIFE OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 18.—War will soon cast its pall over the gay night life of New York. An order issued by Mayor Mitchell to take effect May 1 will stop the sale of liquor throughout the city at 1 o'clock in the morning. All night licenses held by saloons, hotels, roof gardens, restaurants and cabaret places would be closed for the duration of the war.

Mayor Mitchell said his action was called for by good taste and proper sense of the present crisis; also by the necessity of conserving "our resources, national and personal, human and material."

GOVERNMENT SECURES PROVING GROUNDS

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 18.—Fifteen thousand acres of land to be used as a gun testing ground for the Rock Island arsenal are secured by option for the United States government. It became known today that the land is situated more than fifty miles from this city, near the Mississippi river. The government will erect a hard road between the arsenal and the proving grounds which will permit the test for the artillery carriages to be made while carrying the guns to the grounds for testing.

CLOSE HERMANN, MO., BANK.

Hermann, Mo., April 18.—The Farmers and Merchants Bank of Hermann has been closed by the state bank examiner.

WHITLOCK TO OPEN LEGATION AT HAYRE

American Minister To Belgium
Leaves Paris

Minister Had Several Disagreeable Experiences With German Officials in Brussels Following Break in Relations Between U. S. and Germany.

Paris, April 18.—Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium left here today for Hayre where the American legation will be established.

Confers With Premier.

Prior to his departure Mr. Whitlock conferred with Premier Ribot. Mr. Whitlock has avoided making statements concerning conditions in Brussels, but from other quarters it is learned that he had several disagreeable experiences with German officials in Brussels following the rupture of relations between the United States and Germany.

Immediately after the break in relations, the German official communications ceased, addressing Mr. Whitlock as "excellency" and referred to him simply as "Mr." When he made known his intention to leave Brussels with the other American officials and consuls and their families, a reply was sent him by Baron Von der Lancken, chief of the German political department in Brussels, that the minister and his family might depart but that the other Americans in Belgium including the consuls at Ghent, Liege, Antwerp and elsewhere could not go.

Mr. Whitlock, it is said, protested against the detention of any of the Americans declaring that he and his family would remain in Belgium as long as any Americans were held. The Germans finally weakened and after a week had elapsed from the date of the request for passports the documents were issued for the minister and all other Americans who desired to leave.

Showed Intense Bitterness.

Throughout the closing days of Mr. Whitlock's stay in Brussels, the Germans are said to have shown intense bitterness against the United States for rupturing relations. General Von Moltke, a relative of the Lieutenant General Helmuth Von Moltke, chief of the German general staff, said to the legation officials: "If it had not been for America we would have won this war."

It is understood that General Von Bissing, the German governor-general in Belgium, made a similar remark to Mr. Whitlock.

ILLINOIS WHEAT SHOWS NO IMPROVEMENT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 18.—Wheat in Illinois, which the Illinois board of agriculture declares is only 65 per cent of normal, shows no improvement, according to the weekly crop report issued by United States weather bureau here today. There is some good wheat in the southwestern area, however, the report says. It continues:

"There is none planted. Data needing is nearing completion and some is up in central and southern parts of the state. Meadows, pastures and truck are making no material progress. The backward season saved the northern fruit from harm; in the south the trees are blooming and some may be damaged by the recent low temperature."

The temperature for the week averaged seven degrees below the normal, the report says.

ILLINOIS LEADS IN RECRUITING FOR ARMY

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Illinois led in recruiting for the regular army yesterday, according to a tabulated statement issued by the war department today, showing the quota which should be supplied from each state to fill the army to full war strength, and the number of recruits enlisted from each state during the day. With a quota of 11,276, Illinois recruiting stations reported 236 applicants accepted; Pennsylvania was second with a quota of 15,330 and 225 recruits and Indiana third with a quota of 5,499 and 187 recruits.

Three states, Delaware, New Hampshire and New Mexico, reported no recruits; South Dakota and Maine reported one each.

The total number of recruits yesterday was 2,440, and the number of men still needed to bring the army to full war strength is 183,898.

ISSUES MEDICAL INSPECTION ORDER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 18.—In order to remove every particle of danger of infection to Illinois troops mobilized here, Adjutant General Dickson today issued an order to all officers at recruiting stations to make rigid the medical examination of recruits with reference to communicable diseases. The order resulted from the discovery yesterday of two cases of scarlet fever and two of measles at Camp Lowden where the Sixth Illinois Infantry is quartered. No new cases were reported today. "There is no occasion for alarm," General Dickson said. "We are merely taking precautions."

DEMAND HUNGARIAN PREMIER'S RESIGNATION

London, April 18.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Central News says that the Budapest Socialist paper Novezavik announces the resignation of Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier.

REFUSE GRAY'S REQUEST.

Cincinnati, O., April 18.—The national commission today refused the request of W. T. Gray, formerly of the Chicago Americans to be declared a free agent.

FARMERS STARTING UNDER HANDICAP

Temperatures Throughout Country Unfavorable and Season Is Backward

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT

Vegetation Still Nearly Dormant in the Northwestern States

GERMINATION SLOW

WASHINGTON, April 18.—American farmers are starting under a handicap in their efforts to carry out President Wilson's appeal for increased production of foodstuffs.

Season Generally Backward

Almost everywhere thruout the country during the last week temperatures were unfavorable and the season is generally backward, according to the weekly review of the national weather crop bulletin of the weather bureau. Pastures and ranges started slowly, due to dry weather and over the upper Rockies snow still remains over large areas. In the Ohio Valley and in most other east-central districts, germination is still nearly dormant. Germination is slow in southern districts. While the conditions of the week were favorable for farm work in some eastern and southwestern sections, it is generally backward.

Decided improvement was reported in the condition of winter wheat in Kansas and Oklahoma and small but steady improvement in the crop in the Ohio Valley and in most other east-central districts. Not much improvement was shown in Nebraska and there was but little improvement in Illinois. The crop is in good condition in the central and upper Rocky Mountain region, but made little progress on the Pacific coast because of deficient warmth and sunshine.

Winter rye, which promises a record crop, was generally improved.

Report Shortage in Wheat

Shortage in the winter wheat crop fully as great as preliminary reports have forecast and little increases this year in the yield of potatoes are reported from every part of the country by farm loan board appraisers. Their reports were made public today as a part of the board's program to encourage farmers to plant all acreage possible of cultivation.

Three important facts affecting the crop and food situation stand out in the reports received from the presidents of the twelve banks, the board's statement reads. These facts are stated as follows:

"The winter wheat crop will be short to quite as great extent as preliminary reports have shown. The shortage of labor and the high price of seed will prevent a material increase in the potato acreage, commercially grown, but the increased plantings of small plots for home consumption will be a net gain."

"There is in all parts of the United States an organized movement on the part of communities, state governments, agricultural colleges and civic bodies to help the farmer meet the emergency. In many sections this movement taking the form of providing the farmer with additional labor and seasonal loans at low interest."

Detail Reports by Districts

Reports from presidents of the various land banks are detailed by districts. The reports include the St. Louis and Omaha districts which are stated as follows:

St. Louis.—One half the winter wheat in Illinois will be plowed and the replanting will be in corn. The same is true of northern Missouri. The Arkansas wheat crop is all right. The

MINERS GET MORE

The coal operators have granted miners a twenty per cent wage increase which will be in effect until April, 1918. It is fortunate that the operators already had the price of coal at such a high figure that they certainly will not have the courage to face the public and demand still higher prices to make good this increased cost of operation.

MADE A "BAD GUESS"

Two days ago a news service which does a great amount of self-advertising sent out a telegram that Secretary Balfour and his associates had reached this country and were enroute to Washington. The facts are that the distinguished visitors have not yet arrived. The first announcement was one of those guesses which this news agency so often hazards and this time, as frequently, it was a bad guess.

CANADIAN VALOR

Sometimes the privates who enlist for war, while loyal to their officers, have the feeling that these officers get most of the glory and little of the danger. But records do not justify this feeling and the death toll in many battles shows a remarkable percentage of officers who make the final sacrifice. Thus far dispatches indicate that of the Canadian casualties in the battle of Arras there were 400 officers. When the history of that battle is finally written, a wonderful story of Canadian valor will be told.

WOOD SEES DUTY ON BATTLE FRONT

With the intimacy that exists between Colonel Roosevelt and Major General Leonard Wood, it is not surprising that the army officer is also firmly of the opinion that U. S. soldiers should be sent to European soil. He does not believe the U. S. will be doing its duty in this war until men are sent to the front. The opinion of General Wood will greatly strengthen the Roosevelt proposal in the public mind, for the people have come to have a definite regard for the military discretion and sound judgment of the general. His support of the Roosevelt plan is relieving it of the charge of over-enthusiasm.

MR. GOMPERS' BIG TASK

Samuel Gompers made a big promise when he issued the statement declaring that there would be no strikes during the term of the U. S. war with Germany. Already Secretary Redfield has had occasion to ask the labor leader to back up that statement by ending trouble at Wheeling, W. Va., where strikers at one plant are preventing the daily manufacture of two million tin cans, now greatly needed in war preparations.

It was a huge promise for Mr. Gompers to make but there is no other man in the country who can so nearly make good in fulfilling it.

HELPING ENGLAND TO PLANT MORE

Henry Ford, pacifist, has rapidly developed into Henry Ford, patriot, and has the kind of patriotism that pays no attention to dollar value. The great automobile manufacturer has granted England the right to build tractors in accordance with his patent rights. The purpose is, of course, to aid with agriculture in the British Isles and France and thus make it possible to plant more acres. Small as the fields are there by comparison with the vast acreage of the U. S., it is known that the sum total of tillable fields has been far below that which is possible. With supplies somewhat cut down by the German U-boat campaign, and consequent government orders reducing daily rations, the people have come face to face with a new view of the necessity of making every available foot of earth bring forth its crop. Mr. Ford is making a substantial contribution toward the "plant more" propaganda across the sea.

PRESIDENT'S COURSE IS APPROVED

In some instances President Wilson has been criticized because he has openly used his great power to carry thru congress favored legislative programs. It has been said that he has broken all presidential precedent in this regard, but in the instance that congress must pass the selective compulsory military service bill as presented, the president has the approval of the great majority of thinking people, regardless of their party affiliations.

This bill has not only the approval of the president and the secretary of war, but also that of the general staff of the army and many of the most prominent members of congress. The bill represents their opinion based upon a long period of study of a difficult problem. The idea now is to get the best results in the shortest time. There is no occasion for the debate and delay which amendments mount, and even those congressmen who may have honest personal objections to the bill should waive them now, as they recognize that so large a percentage of the people favor the passage of the bill as presented.

STATE WAR COUNCIL WILL FACE SERIOUS WORK

Governor Lowndes' proposal to have a war council of fifteen members to act in conjunction with the national council of defense is in line with the plan he has already referred to and with action taken in other states. The proposal is a war preparation measure and is necessary if the state is to be in position to contribute its share in the prosecution of the war, which may be months in duration and may extend thru a very long period.

Such a council can be of great value in the mobilizing of the forces of the state and can also help the public in the solving of various problems related to the high cost of living. Indications are that these problems will be even more serious during the coming months than in the past. There is plenty of work in sight for the council.

LET THE SOLDIER HAVE HIS WAY

What's this about a monument that people wrangle so? I thought that thing was settled by the soldier long ago. I thought they took their muskets and treated Morgan fair And won a place in memory to cover the whole square; But it seems we are forgetting, or else we never knew How much we're owing to them, those noble boys in blue. They didn't ask our wishes when they heard the stirring drum. As Morgan called for soldiers and summoned them to come, But bravely they went forward. Have you thought of what that means? Did you leave your home and kindred to face the battle scenes? Again I question whether the thought has come to you, Of that ripping, tearing bullet that pierces thru and thru; And have felt the blood dripping, dripping all your life away. Or the flies a swarming round you as wounded there you lay? But the Morgan men can tell you, who went away to wars, And brought Old Glory home again with all her gleaming stars. And now you haven't room enough to place in Central Square, A monument for justice, to treat the boys fair. But you've room enough for poultry, and plenty for the pigs, With a corner for a horse show, and a place for dandy rigs; And a fortune teller's corner that she whisper in your ear, Where you'll find the gold of Midas or lovers that are dear. Now if I'm not mistaken, in the 60's we've forgot, We'd have gladly had a blue-coat standing in the central spot. Then do not keep him begging, nor grudgingly today, Grant the right for his memorial. Let the soldier have his way. —S. A. Hughes.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

The Ex-Czar

My old friend Nick is now an ex, no more a crown his brow bedecked. The people weired of his reign and showed him where to shove the crown. A monarch with a head of bone should not be perched upon a throne in troublous times when kings must try to earn their salaries or die. From palaces and crowns remote the czar must seek his straying goat. A kind and pleasant gent was he, this Nicholas, whose end we see. But he could never use his head, and by false prophets he was led. Great Russians begged, at every chance, that he would come out from his trance, and reign according to the rules laid down by Hoyer, but knaves and fools possessed the benevolent monarch's ear until he saw his doom appear. Now, stripped of all his kingly state, of all the pomp that made him great, by loyal countrymen accursed, he sadly wanders, verst on verst, o'er hill and dale and moor and fen, and hopes he'll find his goat again. But royal goats, when once they stray, are gone forever and a day.

REPORT GENERAL VON BISSING DEAD

LONDON, April 19.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent says that according to a Brussels dispatch General Von Bissing, German governor-general in Belgium, died Wednesday evening.

General Baron Moritz Ferdinand Von Bissing was appointed governor-general of Belgium in November, 1914 in succession to General von der Goltz. He was born in 1844. During his rule in Belgium General von Bissing has come into prominence many times, notably in connection with the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, the English nurse, frequent clashes with Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, and the deportation of Belgians.

It was reported in 1915 that he had ordered the round up of spies and persons suspected of working against the Germans in Belgium and that scores of executions followed. Several times by his order Belgium cities and towns were fined heavily for alleged breaking of rules laid down by him. He had been ill off and on for more than a year.

HOUSE REPUBLICANS CARR YOUT PROGRAM

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 18.—House Republicans succeeded today in carrying out their program with reference to civil service bills.

They put upon the calendar the Bancroft bill to remove the trial clause from civil service, passed the Chicago municipal tuberculosis sanitarium civil service bill, amended the Cook county municipal court and county service bills so as to remove the blanket clauses which would have retained practically all present employees and added an amendment to the latter bill which would take power of naming the county civil service commission out of the hands of the president of the county board and give it to the circuit court judges.

Democrats objected vainly, charging that a raid on merit rule was in progress. The Republicans declared they sought real service and that elimination of blanket clauses would prevent foisting incompetent employees on the state forever.

the public school authorities and religious instructors was a point urged by the Rev. R. W. Gammon of Chicago at the recent Waverly convention and the report of this address by Miss Marian Fairbank proved of much interest. In some modern schools, as at Gary, Ind., religious instruction of a thorough kind is given under denominational auspices but credit for this work is given by the public schools.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK

Columbia University, instead of omitting its summer session because of the war, will make it a "war session," including subjects of military value. Elaborate plans have been made for co-operation with the Government for preparedness. Wireless and cable telegraphy will be taught, and courses for reserve officers, courses in nursing, food conservation and the like, will be opened. Camp Columbia, at the foot of the Berkshires, will be given to the Government for training reserves. This extensive property used in normal times for the field work of the engineering students, will accommodate 150 officers.

Dr. William MacDonald, for sixteen years Professor of History at Brown University, has resigned. He is at present enjoying his sabbatical year and is in France engaged in literary work. Prof. MacDonald is the author of textbooks widely used, among them "Jacksonian Democracy," a volume included in Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart's American nation series. The vacancy caused by Prof. MacDonald's resignation will be filled by Prof. St. George Loring Simpson, since 1911 Professor of History at Vanderbilt University, one of the best known of Southern historians. Dr. Simpson has served as a lecturer at the summer sessions of the University of Michigan and at Johns Hopkins and is a member of many national organizations for the study of history and political science. He is the author of several books on the history and political development of the American South.

The fifteen German scholarships established by Cecil Rhodes at Oxford University have been cancelled, the cancellation being made by act of Parliament on the petition of the trustees. The German Rhodes Scholarships were established by Cecil Rhodes on the theory that the intermingling of British, Americans, and Germans at Oxford would eventually bring these three powers to a community of feeling that would guarantee world peace, and much has been written since the war started about the failure of Rhodes' dream. Nominations for the German scholarships were made by the Kaiser and the best families in the country were proud to have their sons enrolled, among those who held appointments shortly before the war were a son of Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, a nephew of former Ambassador Von Bernstorff, a son of General Von Heeringen, former Minister of War, a son of Count Von Schwerin, former President of the Reichstag, and others of the leading nobles of Germany. At the time, England was flattered by the connection of these youths with all that was highest in the Prussian official, military and diplomatic worlds, but knowing as she does now that they were but placed there to "do their bit" in the gigantic preparation for her overthrow, she no longer regards the fact as a compliment, unless it is to her stupidity. The cancellation of the scholarship as far as Germany is concerned has met with general popular approval in Great Britain.

Dr. Robert R. Moton, the successor of Booker T. Washington as principal of Tuskegee Institute, is confident that the mass of negroes in the United States, and more particularly the enlightened class represented by Tuskegee students and graduates, will be loyal to the nation in her need and conspicuous among those who will most quickly rally to the flag. The work of German agents in trying to arouse the black race for revolution has roused vigorous protest from the Negro leaders in all parts of the country, and Dr. Moton was in his early life commandant of the military organization at Hampton Institute, and therefore is familiar with the spirit and details of military service. He has already taken steps for an extensive organization of Tuskegee's forces to help in the war. In a letter to President Wilson, he wrote, in part: "Notwithstanding the difficulties which my people have encountered in many parts of the country, I can assure you that you and the nation can count, absolutely, on the loyalty of the mass of negroes, North and South, to the flag, as in previous wars." He has also pointed out that if the country needed nurses for Red Cross work, it could count upon Tuskegee-trained young colored women for that service.

CHARGE CORPORATIONS BACK OPPOSITION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 18.—Charges that public service corporations were backing the opposition to the Lyle bills proposing construction by the Chicago sanitary district of a huge power dam at Brandon road below Joliet, were made before the house waterways committee tonight at a hearing on the bill.

Trustee Wallace G. Clark and Attorney Edmund D. Adecock of the district made the charges. "Construction of the dam would reduce rates for electric current, that's why it is opposed," Mr. Clark said.

Former Congressman Howard Snapp of Joliet, presented the charge. "Anyone who says I represent such interests lies," Mr. Snapp declared. The dam would extend the deep waterway to a point almost six miles below Joliet, would furnish cheap current for manufacturing purposes, and probably would ultimately mean free current for municipal lighting purpose at Chicago and Joliet. It would cost approximately $6,000,000 to construct.

BURN SEVERAL GERMAN HOUSES IN BRAZIL

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil, April 18.—The loss in the anti-German riots, which resulted in the burning of several German houses today is estimated at 20,000,000 milreis. (Prior to the war a milreis was valued at fifty cents American.) Three firemen were injured. The city is now calm and police patrols are dispersing the crowds. The German newspapers have suspended publication and the newspapers report that the German residents in Parana have withdrawn to Santa Catharina where they are concentrating. Most of the German houses in Petropolis have taken down their German flags and substituted the Brazilian ensign.

A report that the president of the state of Rio Grande do Sul had been attacked was denied tonight. The president addressed the crowds in the streets this morning exhorting them to preserve the peace. Troops are being sent from Pelotas as a precaution against further disorders.

APPEAL TO FARMERS TO INCREASE PRODUCTION

WASHINGTON, April 18.—An appeal to the farmers to increase the production of corn in the United States to the fullest extent this year in order to meet the increased demand resulting from the war emergency was made in a statement issued today by Secretary Houston at the department of agriculture.

The statement follows:

"Corn is America's most important cereal. It can be grown successfully over a wider area than any other and furnishes nutritious food for man as well as the staple grain feed for cattle and draft animals. The production of corn should be increased this year to the fullest extent, taking into consideration seed and labor."

The Reo Does Its Own Talking

The reputation of the REO was established by performance—not promises. For years it has given steady, satisfactory service.

The REO is not only handsome in design, roomy, comfortable, and luxurious in its appointments, but most of all, as well balanced and mechanically perfect a machine as human ingenuity and expert skill can produce.

Quality and efficiency are vital considerations. There is not a single faulty unit in the REO; every unit is the best that expert mechanical skill can produce. No unit that is experimental; none that has not stood the rigid test of time is ever found in a REO chassis. It will pay you to investigate the REO line.

BAKER AUTHORIZES TRAINING CAMPS

War Department To Establish Fourteen Camps

Reserve Officers and Applicants for Commissions in the New War Army Will Receive Intensive Military Instruction—Camps to Open May 1.

Washington, April 18.—Establishment of fourteen citizen training camps where reserve officers and applicants for commissions in the new war army will receive intensive military instruction was authorized today by Secretary Baker.

The camps will be opened May 1 and the courses of instruction under officers and non-commissioned officers of the regulars will begin May 8.

Locations of Camps.

In selecting locations, the war department was guided largely by the lines of the proposed divisional training areas. The places selected are: Fort Ethen Allen, Vermont; Plattsburg, N. Y.; Madison Barracks, N. Y.; Fort Niagara, N. Y.; Fort Meyer, Va.; Fort McPherson, Ga.; Fort Benning, Ind.; Fort Sheridan, Ill.; Fort Logan H. Root, Arkansas; Fort Snelling, Minn.; Fort Riley, Kan.; Fort Leavenworth, Texas, and the Presidio, San Francisco.

Fort Sheridan, Ill., is the training camp selected for Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin, applicants.

Fort Snelling, Minn., is the camp for Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska applicants.

Reserve officers and others admitted to the camps will be notified to report between May 1 and 8 at the camps nearest their home. Those selected for admission may receive transportation, subsistence and uniforms of the government, although most of them probably will have their uniforms in advance.

Limit Attendance to 2,500.

The maximum attendance at every camp has been limited to 2,500.

During the first month the student officers in each camp will be divided into fifteen companies, regardless of the arm of the service, the individuals are destined. At the end of the month the men will be assigned in the necessary proportions for the formation of companies, three batteries of artillery, two troops of cavalry and one company of engineers. Others will be selected for the coast artillery and sent to Fort Monroe, Va., and Fort Winfield Scott, California to finish training.

Those remaining at the division camps then will receive two months additional training at the end of which regular army officers will select from each company, troop and battery, the officers for one regiment of their respective services.

The plan contemplates providing carefully selected officers for 16 infantry divisions and two cavalry divisions by the time the supply department is able to furnish equipment and the necessary machinery can be put in motion for recruiting enlisted men.

Require 10,000 Officers.

The total number of officers required is approximately 10,000. Men of the more mature age and experience as leaders will be given preference. Army officers believe the camps will turn out the number of officers needed by the middle of July for service with the first 500,000 increment of volunteers or conscripted men.

Strong emphasis is given by the war department to the necessity of having the first 10,000 the best the country can produce.

The minimum age of those who attend is fixed at 20 years and 9 months, the maximum at 44 years.

WOULD PERMIT ALLIES TO RECRUIT MEN IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Webb bill to permit foreign governments at war with Germany to recruit their citizens in this country for their armies passed the house today without a roll call.

Enlistments would be under the regulation of the secretary of war by an amendment to the bill which Mr. Webb offered to offset vigorous opposition from various members who contended the measure would permit recruiting officers of other nations to obtain men under duress or threat.

Only voluntary enlistments could be accepted under the measure. Representatives Lemrot and Maddox sought vainly to have an amendment looking to the exemption of industrial employees included. They argued that much of the labor now employed in mines and factories of the country was recruited from foreigners and that unless these men were protected the industries probably would be paralyzed.

GERMANS BURN TOWNS OF BRAILA AND FOKSHANI

PETROGRAD, April 18.—A report received here from Jassy, the seat of the Roumanian government, says the Germans have burned the towns of Braila and Fokshani. The dispatch says Roumanian military circles consider that this foreshadows a German retirement.

Braila and Fokshani are both important railroad towns in Roumania. Braila lies on the Danube to the south of Galatz, while Fokshani is situated on the railway line about midway between Bucharest and Jassy.

OUTCOME OF BERNHARDT'S ILLNESS UNCERTAIN

NEW YORK, April 19.—The outcome of the critical illness of Madame Sarah Bernhardt who was operated upon last night at Mount Sinai hospital, is still uncertain "because of previous underlying conditions" according to a bulletin issued by her physicians tonight. She was said, however, to have stood the operation well.

It was stated that the famous actress was resting quietly and that she frequently slept for brief periods. Many telegrams expressing hope for her speedy recovery were received from all parts of the United States and from abroad.

MAKES CONCESSIONS TO STRIKERS

Copenhagen, Apr. 18.—The Weser Zeitung says General Groener head of the German department of munitions has issued an order that two of the members of all municipal food supply committees in German towns shall be representatives of trades unions. This is regarded here as important concessions to the strikers. Rumors that a general strike would be declared in Germany May 1, have not been confirmed.

GRiffin SUBSCRIBES $1,000

Chicago, April 18.—Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Board of Trade today subscribed $1,000 on behalf of the board toward payment of fares of high school boys who have volunteered for farm work. He said if more funds were needed, he "would consult the board of directors."

Mr. Griffin's action was taken on learning that under the law the government could not provide railroad fares for the volunteers.

ALFONSO REVEALS TROOPS

Madrid, April 18.—via Paris.—King Alfonso, reviewing the troops who were leaving for Morocco today, made this significant statement: "It is necessary that we shall keep in a constant state of preparation although Spain wishes to maintain a policy of absolute neutrality."

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

NOVEMBER MEETING

The November meeting was held at the Court House as usual. The first order after the formalities was the exhibition by Dr. R. C. Warner of a specimen of purified Castor oil which he had prepared by a process of his own and only known to himself. Later in the day he presented a sample bottle of his oil to each member. There was evidently some criticism of the secrecy of the process of preparation but the Society decided to let him keep his secret. A considerable time was taken up by a report by Dr. David Prince of a suit for malpractice at Quincy in which he and Dr. Edmund Andrews of Chicago and others had been called as experts. The case was one of forward dislocation of the lower end of the tibia (ankle joint) which had not been reduced. With their help the attorneys for the defense were finally able to convince the court that the accident was exceedingly rare and difficult to understand and difficult to keep in place and the doctor was exonerated.

Dr. Prince was to have read a paper on "Dysentery" but was not prepared; in his place Dr. R. E. McVey of Waverly presented a paper on "Phthisis and its Relation to Scrofula." This is probably the first time tuberculosis was formally discussed in Morgan county and was long before Robert Koch discovered the germ of the Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis Society established the "Clinic." The minutes are silent as to whether the subject elicited much discussion. In those days it was considered a hereditary disease and it may be the doctors considered it beyond their control. The contagiousness of Tuberculosis had not yet been seriously thought of and the change in the public and professional view of Tuberculosis is one of the most radical in the history of diseases.

CHARGE ATTEMPT TO CAUSE PERJURY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 18.—Frank C. Oxman a Durkee, Ore., stockman whose evidence contributed materially to the conviction of Thomas J. Mooney for bomb murders here, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with attempting to induce F. E. Rigall of Grayville, Ill., to give false testimony against Mooney who is under sentence of death.

Oxman was released on $2,500 cash bail furnished by himself. He said his testimony at the Mooney trial was "the whole truth." Oxman said Rigall's story which resulted in the issuance of the warrant, was entirely false.

MISS ANNABEL CRAWLEY
WEDS JEAN P. CURTISPretty Ceremony Said Wednesday Evening at W. A. Crawley Home
—Matrimonial Record

The wedding of Jean P. PROMPT ACTION
PREVENTED FIRE LOSS

Miss Mary Newman Used Extinguisher With Good Effect at Home of Fred Brown

Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock during the storm, lightning struck a tree in the yard of Fred Brown at 821 East State street, followed a wire into the cellar and burned a hole in a gas pipe. The bolt ignited the gas and set fire to the flooring.

All of the family were away from home at the time and Miss Mary Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Newman, saw the flames and hurried to the residence with a Pyrene fire extinguisher and put out the blaze. The fire department also was notified but its services were not needed. The prompt action of Miss Newman probably saved the house as Chief Hunt said that the flames would have gained great headway before the department could have reached the scene.

Jacksonville lodge No. 570 will hold a stated meeting tonight at 7:30. Visiting brethren welcome.

BROOKLYN EVANGELIST SPEAKS ON "REPENTANCE"

"Repentance" was the sermon theme of the Rev. E. K. Towle Wednesday evening at Brooklyn M. E. church revival and all who heard were impressed with the deep spiritual truths brought out by the evangelist in earnest words. The text was the passage, "Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand," and these words from the gospel of St. John, were used as the basis of a strong discourse.

"John had clear convictions, a fine mind, a lion heart. The spirit of God was with him. He charged all ranks of society and called every class to repentance, rebuking even the king.

"Noah, Elijah, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Hosea, John the Baptist—God's inspiring challengers of sin, in retrospect we see them standing on the walls of the centuries commanding their generations to repent. They took their lives in their hands. The world has never listened kindly to the story of his sin.

"What is repentance? Some think it to be fear. Fear drives the sinner to hiding and to secrecy. 'He feeth when no man pursueth.' Fear of the law is not repentance. Remorse is not repentance. A man's mind may be filled with remorse and still may be continue in his sin. It is not conviction of sin. Most sinners have the sense of a burning conviction which is the outgrowth of guilt.

"Repentance involves action against sin, a change of mind and will and heart. When sin becomes so nauseating and repulsive that the sinner throws out the whole vile program and forces resolutely the road which leads into a new line of action and conduct, then something beyond conviction, or fear, or remorse, has taken place. It is revolution. A new government is set up in the heart, the government of God.

"A Branded Conscience" will be the subject of Mr. Towle tonight.

HAS REACHED GREAT AGE

Many Jacksonville people will be interested in the story which appears in the Springfield Register mentioning the birthday of Mrs. Antonio Smith, who is now 105 years old. Mrs. Smith, who is well known here, became a resident of Springfield sixty years ago when she came to this country with the exiles fleeing persecution from the Island of Madeira.

Mrs. Smith was born in Madeira April 12, 1812, and is the mother of ten children, five of whom are living. Manuel and Nicholas Smith of Springfield; Jacob Smith of Mechanicsburg; David Smith of Dawson and Mrs. Catherine Franks, with whom Mrs. Smith is making her home in Springfield. Mrs. Smith has been a member of the Fourth Presbyterian church in Springfield since the disbanding of the old Second church. Naturally Mrs. Smith is now very feeble but she is able to meet her friends and to talk about present day affairs and others of long ago.

D. A. R. SUMMARIZES LAWS TOUCHING FLAG

As Patriotic Contribution to Spirit of the Day—Gives Etiquette of Flag as Presented in War and Navy Dept. Rules

Springfield, Ill., April — As a patriotic contribution to the spirit of the day, the Springfield chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has prepared a summary of Illinois laws touching the flag as follows:

An act in force July 1, 1887, providing for placing the United States flag upon public buildings; Supervisors or commissioners of each county, trustees of penal and other public institutions, directors of boards of education, shall provide flags not less than four by eight feet in size and place the same on suitable poles in grounds adjacent to court house, public institutions, school houses and shall see that such flags float from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. each legal holiday, and such other days as may be determined by commissioners or trustees. When inclement weather would injure the flag it is not to be raised.

An act in force July 1, 1907, to punish improper use of the flag: It is forbidden to place any word, picture, design, drawing or advertisement upon any flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States or state flag, or to expose to view any flag, standard color or ensign upon which such mark has been placed or attached, or to manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away or have in possession any article of merchandise or receptacle thereof on which is a representation of the flag, standard, color or ensign. It is forbidden to deface, defile or cast contempt upon the flag by word or act. Any violation of this law is punishable by fine or imprisonment or both.

Etiquette of the flag, as presented in rules of the war and navy department is given as follows:

The position of the flag is aloft from a pinnacle of a building, higher than furniture of a room, and above the head of one carrying it.

The flag must not be raised before sunrise nor remain up after sunset. In raising or lowering the flag it must never be allowed to touch the ground.

When the flag is raised formally, all present should stand at attention with hand raised to forehead ready for salute. When the colors are passing on parade, spectators, if walking, shall halt, if sitting, arise and stand at attention.

The flag hung out of doors should always fly to the breeze, preferably from a pole, and should never be fastened to the side of a building, platform or scaffolding.

The flag should never be placed below a person sitting. It should not be used as a cover for a table, desk or box, nor should anything be placed on it except it be the Bible. The flag should never be so placed that it will be struck by a gavel.

The flag should not be worn as part of the whole of a costume. When worn as a badge it should be small and pinned over the left breast or on the left coat lapel.

The flag should never be washed. When worn or torn it should be reverently burned.

SENDS ACCOUNT OF PEACE SERVICE

Austrian Emperor Reads Prayer Aboard at Service Held in St. Stephens Sunday

Amsterdam, April 18—via London, April 19.—The Vienna correspondent of the Tiedt sends an impressive account of a solemn peace service held in St. Stephens Sunday, the Austrian emperor and empress Zita kneeling amid high officials and the sobbing congregation which crowded the edifice, imploring peace.

Cardinal Piffli officiated and at the elevation of the host Emperor Charles in a loud voice read the prayer as follows:

"Almighty God who hast or misdest that the patient shall taste abundant peace. Thou knowest what patience we observed toward our enemies until rigorous self defense compelled us to draw the sword. In the midst of this war, thus forced upon us, we recognize the blessings of peace. We beseech Thee, knowing our impotence yet trusting Thee, altho we have often spurned Thy grace. Lord God give peace to our land. The ruler and people of Austria kneeling this day before Thy holy throne, promise to build a church dedicated to our lady, the Queen of Peace, where a solemn service will be held every year to commemorate Peace Day and a religious mass on All Souls Day for Austria's fallen warriors. Oh Lord, bless this undertaking and grant us peace in our days."

CHI-NAMEL DEMONSTRATION AGAIN TODAY.

MISS ESTA BROWN WEDS IN CHURCH CEREMONY

Is Bride of Mr. H. B. Overesch of Lafayette, Ind.—Youth and Beauty Made Ceremonial Notable.

Seldom is there such an array of youth and beauty even at a marriage event as that in evidence at the nuptials Wednesday night of Miss Esta Brown of Jacksonville and Mr. Harry B. Overesch of Lafayette, Ind. The marriage ceremony was solemnized at Trinity Episcopal church at 8:15 o'clock, with the church auditorium wholly filled with friends and relatives. The service was said by Rev. J. E. Langton, rector of Trinity. As the guests were assembling, Mr. J. Philip Read of Illinois College Conservatory of Music, organist, and Mrs. George Orear, soloist, furnished an especially notable musical program.

Following the church service relatives and the more intimate friends of the family were guests at a reception given at the Brown home, 251 Webster avenue. The wedding party included some of the prettiest of the younger society girls of Jacksonville, the decorations at both church and home were of great beauty, and all these details combined to give the ceremony a freshness and a grace often wished for but seldom attained.

The Musical Program
Mr. Read and Mrs. Orear gave the following program before the ceremony:

Organ—
"To the Sea"—MacDowell.
"Idyll"—Kander.
"Indian Summer Sketch"—Brewster.
"Romance in D Flat"—Lemare.
Voice—
"To You"—E. MacLean.
"Just You"—H. T. Burleigh.
"At Dawning"—Charles W. Cadman.

As the wedding party appeared Mr. Read played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The recessional was by the west side and Mr. Read played the Mendelssohn wedding march. Two Jacksonville young men, Dick Reynolds and John Lane, were masters of ceremonies and the ushers, all from Lafayette, Ind., were university friends of Mr. Overesch. These visiting young men were Messrs. Herbert Sattler, Charles Gallagher, Frank Rentz and Fred Prass.

The ushers as they advanced down the east aisle preceded the bridesmaids, Miss Mildred Weigle of Lafayette, Ind., Misses Marie Wiswell, Carrie Mackness and Gladys Andre of Jacksonville. The maid of honor was Miss Esther Davis. The bridesmaids and the maid of honor were dainty and beautiful in pink tulle over pink messaline. Each carried a nosegay of fragrant French flowers.

Miss Brown entered the church with Mr. Edgar E. Crabtree. Her exquisite gown was of white satin with court train, pearls and rhinestones making the head trimming about the neck and sash. The shower bouquet was of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and white sweet peas and she wore a tulle veil, cap shape with olive blossoms dotted along both sides. The diamond and sapphire lavallier set in platinum was the gift of Mr. Overesch.

Episcopal Service Used

Mr. Overesch and his best man, Mr. Kenneth Kenninger of Lafayette, met the bride party before the altar as Mr. Read played very softly Schubert's Serenade. The ceremony was said in accordance with the ritual of the Episcopal church, and there is none more beautiful or impressive. Green and white were the color tones of the church decoration and the effects desired were secured from the artistic use of smilax and lilies. The flowers and foliage were intertwined about the choir loft, the chancel and the altar, and as the young people stood before the minister in this floral framing the picture was indeed one of very special beauty. While the wedding party was large in number and the service details somewhat elaborate, there was a touch of simplicity which added greatly to the impressiveness of the whole.

At the Brown home, Mrs. Charles W. Brown, mother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Overesch, parents of the groom, received, together with the members of the wedding party. In the reception hall and parlor the color tones were the same as those at the church, secured also by the use of smilax and lilies. In the dining room adjoining pink and green were the colors. In the center of the table was a great bowl of Killarney roses, and stretching from each corner of the table to the chandelier above were streamers of smilax. The Peacock Inn served.

Mrs. Brown wore orchid colored georgette crepe, trimmed in chenille and the gown of Mrs. H. B. Overesch, Sr., was of black georgette crepe trimmed with chenille. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Walter H. Bradish of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mrs. Esther Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Andre, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lee P. Allcott, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mackness, Mr. George Wiswell, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Conover, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Reynolds, Mrs. William Barr Brown, Sr., Misses Edna and Ruth Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McMurphy, Dr. and Mrs. Applebee, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Chenoweth, and Miss Millicent Rowe.

Romance Began in Indiana

Mrs. Overesch, the central figure in this notable social event, is the daughter of Mrs. Charles W. Brown and has known no other home than Jacksonville. After attending the public schools she was for two years a student at Illinois college and then took special work at Illinois Woman's college. Her individual charm has given her friends of unusual number and not one but has been sincerely interested in the romance so happily accomplished in this wedding ceremony. It was during a visit in Lafayette, Ind., with relatives last year that the friendship between this bride and Mr. Overesch began and developed with a rapidity characteristic of the young and sincere.

It is worth mentioning that Mr. Overesch is a graduate of Purdue university and so his alma mater is the same as that of his bride's father. It is somewhat of a coincidence too, that Mr. Overesch fitted himself for a life work similar to that of Mr. Brown, and is now serving as public engineer of Lafayette. He is a young man of firm character and known worth, and these two young people so soon to occupy an Indiana home look toward the horizon of married life under very happy circumstances.

The many gifts received because of the wedding event gave ample testimony of the esteem of relatives and friends. Mrs. Overesch's favors to the young women in her party were gold doring boxes with pink enamel tops, and Mr. Overesch gave the groomsman handsome dress suits. Following a wedding journey to New Orleans Mr. and Mrs. Overesch will be at home after June 15 at the Marian apartments in Lafayette.

JOHN LAIR FOUND NOT GUILTY IN COUNTY COURT

Defendant Was Charged With Selling Liquor in Anti-Saloon Territory.

The trial of John Lair, who was charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory was completed in the county court Wednesday and the defendant was found not guilty. The case was prosecuted by State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson and the attorneys for Lair were W. W. Wright and John M. Butler. The prosecuting witness in the case was Alvey Garrison, who testified that he had purchased a half pint of whiskey from Lair in the alley at the rear of the old Park Hotel building. He further testified that he became intoxicated from this liquor but realized his condition and voluntarily went to the city prison and spent the night.

The evidence given by Lair was exactly contradictory to that of the prosecuting witness and evidently in the minds of the jury the evidence was not of a convincing kind.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

A Morgan Journal of 1850

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society.)

A "MORGAN JOURNAL" OF 1850.

The "head" of the Morgan Journal of April 13, 1850, was illuminated by an old fashioned printing press, from which light was flashing in a manner suggesting electricity.
Under the picture of the press was the main headline:

"Devoted to Politics, Literature,
Science, Education, Agriculture,
Domestic and Foreign News, Amusement, the Markets, etc." Quite a formidable undertaking for a four page, six column sheet. "By E. R.
Roe," was the editorial and publishing suggestion; with a further suggestion of "850 in Advance."

After a poem and a three column story, a letter from California was the main feature of the first page.
It was dated "Dry Creek, Upper California, Jan. 10, 1850," and must have come by the Isthmus route, to have gotten here so soon. Samuel and George Neese were signers of the "Correspondence." The rest of the first page of the newspaper was devoted to some literary extracts. A Washington news item of April 2, 7 p. m., telling of the funeral obse-quies of John C. Calhoun, and a story of the robbery, at New Orleans, of two parties returning from California.

The California Letter, gave some idea of what it meant to go to that state, in search of a fortune. Among other things the boys wrote:

"We travelled 25 miles in the night on the Hot Springs (creek), and of all the places in the world it was the place! Found the Springs on the side of a mountain; some as clear water in—as crystal, and in fact hot enough to scald a hog. A perfect solid rock around, and some of them were just as thick (mud) and they were blubbery and puffing, putting one in mind of boiling apple butter." We had to send on and have some boiled out in a large wagon bed they had, or was left here to cool off for our stock.

It was fine for us to cook with first fill our coffee pots and we would have coffee. To wash dishes and clothes it was just right at hand.
The water was unhealthy, it made some of our men sick, and was as nausea a place as I seen on the road;
it was sickening. We got there at 2 o'clock at night, and left early the next morning, to get away from it. There was a little of everything laid around the Springs; cattle, haying around the Springs; cattle, and mules, poisoned by drinking the water, and almost all kinds of provisions, clothes, wagons, harness and a little of everything you could mention. The amount of property and possessions left on the Plains, can not be accounted for; it was wretched to see the provision that was thrown out. We were all too heavy loaded. We had to lighten twice so we could get thru. An immense sight of bacon was thrown out, some nights we would have large fires just of burning bacon. **
We would come across a first rate wagon at night, take our axes and cut it up for fires. We left two wagons, and threw out some bacon, beans, powder and lead, and some trunks. * * * It was pitiable to see so much valuable property going to waste. * * * All afraid they would starve, loaded from twenty to thirty hundreds on a wagon.

The 4th of July, we crossed Green river on a small sheet iron boat, we had to take our loading out, and take our wagons to pieces to get them across, piece by piece; we did nearly all the work to get across, and they charged us $8 per wagon! *
* * The wharves on both sides were crowded thick for a quarter of a mile, a perfect town apparently. * *

The next bear fight was the Sierra Nevada, the most awful and impossible mountain (s) ever crossed by a white man! It was dangerous to see the places where we crossed, it was anything else for California!
We had our minds on that, and did not think about dangers. * * After we left the summit we soon reached the mines and went to work.
The company dissolved immediately, being too large to be successful. * *

We commenced mining on Bear river, and worked there some two or three weeks, taking out from one to two ounces per day. * * * We then went to Deer creek, where the most of our company were operating on the 18th of October (1849); they were taking out from a half pound to a pound a day, six of them. * *

We all met together there and concluded to move south for winter quarters. Mining about four weeks, and having made about five hundred dollars apiece, we went on to Sacramento City to spend the winter."

Second Page.
On the second page of the Journal came the editorial articles, which included some two or three fine pieces. Among these was one: "Capt.
Wolcott, of the railroad, has laid us under many obligations by the prompt delivery of papers, sent us by the steamers. We tender our thanks."
This probably meant Elizur Wolcott, who probably brought the papers up from steamboats at Naples.

Another note was: "Miss Dix, the philanthropist, has succeeded in inducing the legislature of Mississippi to appropriate $50,000 for the benefit of the insane in that state."

A meeting of Masons, at Springfield, is told of, where Wm. B. Warren was elected Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Illinois.

The leading editorial was on "Teachers Institutes;" a "Normal Teachers Institute" having been recently organized at Carrollton.

Most of the second page is given up to news matters, and the markets.
One feature is a letter from Capt. Wm. Waldo.

dated Sacramento City, Jan. 6, 1850.
Among other things he says: "Jas.
P. Martin is in fine circumstances.—
Daniel Waldo worth probably $100,- 000. Joseph Waldo worth $10,000.
He has been in this country, but was hauled back to Oregon sick." The letter is quite long, and filled with the harrowing experiences of the "Argonauts."

In the market report cattle were quoted at 6 and 7 1-4 cents per lb.
Hogs at 5 and 5 1-4 cents per lb. Both at Jefferson City.

Wm. Holland had an advertisement of the "Morgan Mills" (north of the Mauvalsterre). Wm. Rogers had a new lumber yard, on the corner of Beardstown street, fronting the railroad, "and just opposite Card-well's Rail Road House."

The Third Page. was given up to advertisements, legal notices, and a long list of letters advertised by E. T. Miller, P. M.

Among those using this page were Alex McDonald, David Robb, Wm. J.
Cattin, J. O. King, Samuel Markoe,
Foreman, Hurst & Co., John Hughes,
Kibbe & Lathrop and A. Hammond.
Among other things he had "two tons of Mill Gudgeons of various sizes and many banded and fitted ready for use, etc."

Harfield & Reeve had chairs, Corcoran and Austin had tea, A. Bulky a very desirable building lot of 5 acres, in the West end, Coffman and Son had clover seed, and Dunlap &
Caswell want people to pay up.

The Fourth Page.
was given up to advertisements.
Among those using it were Ambrose Wetherbee, confectionery; R. & J.
Hockenull, druggists; Corcoran & Austin, grocers; P. B. Price & Co., jewelers; Brown & Yates, lawyers; Edward Cochrane, books, stationery, musical instruments, etc.; A. & W.
Russell, dry goods, groceries and queensware; Mat Stacy, insurance; Harvey Root, surveyor; Wm. M.
Warren, deputy; M. P. Ayers & Co., druggists; Foreman & Creamer, tailors; Robb, dry goods, etc.; McDonald dry goods; Nathaniel Coffin, insurance; Dr. David Prince, surgeon; Dr.
G. V. Shirley, dental surgeon, on "Springfield street;" Wm. H. Broad-well had "Goldometers, or an common language will have steel and iron ploughs." John M. Tazart had Marble Works; Mrs. M. Stewart had millinery and other things for ladies; J. H. Finch had the "Union House" and lines of stages to Quincy, or Louisiana (Mo.), Winchester or Rushville being taken en route.
Julian M. Sturtevant advertised the "Morgan House" for sale, as Trustee for the Duncans. That was at-terwards the "Mansion House" and is now the "Park Hotel."

GAIN NOTICEABLE IN ALL RESPECTS

Local Man Declares Tanlac Improved Him
Every Way

GLAD TO TELL OTHERS

G. W. Corbridge Says Master Medicine Banished Troubles of Two Long Years

OFFERS FULL DETAILS

G. W. Corbridge, a well known local carpenter of 723 North Ashland avenue, declares Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine, has improved him in every respect.

"Yes sir, I'm better in most every way since using this preparation," Mr. Corbridge said on April 9. "Two years ago I suffered an attack of paralysis and since that time my system generally has been in a run down condition. My kidneys were so weak that I had to get up as often as seven or eight times during the night. Sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs caused me much suffering. I was so nervous that to get a good night's sleep was almost impossible. I'd wake up at all hours of the night. I was so restless, I read about Tanlac in the Jacksonville papers and finally decided to try the new medicine. I could almost feel Tanlac doing its good work.
It's hard to believe, but I never have to get up during the night, anymore, on account of my kidneys. I'm not so nervous, either and don't wake up at all hours of the night as I did before using Tanlac. The sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs are much less severe."

"I think Tanlac is a fine medicine and I'm glad to tell others about it."

There is no season of the year when Tanlac can be taken to so good an advantage as right now. "All mankind, after weathering the storms of winter is in need of an uplifting tonic. Tanlac has proven surprisingly effective in relieving after effects of a gripple, pneumonia, severe coughs and colds and is fine for established affections of the stomach, liver and kidneys."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O.
Brownback's; and in Versailles at A.
G. Bates' drug store.—Adv.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.
To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.
They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.
